THE Week's New Stage Bills >> Secret of the Radium Dance in Kiralfy's "Louisiana" >> >> Uncle Sam's Eagle as Impersonated at Delmar >> > Beginning of the Crawford Theater's Regular Season >>> in California, where she is now rounding Miss Allen will appear as Hermione and as out a wonderfully successful season in Perdita. The scheme of doubling these e an interviewer in San Francisco the "It's my husband's work, not mine, that isoinates me." she said. "I shall enjoy y's success. I've never seen him on the w what he canitting back in a corner and watching my

Morgan out in hastily. "That is, bar watching her at the Orpheum."

"He's too nervous to stand the ordeal of more than one-half of one of my songs," said she. "But I shan't be singing for very long. Thirty weeks more let me out for good—except, perhaps, for a brief flyer into vaudeville now and then—very now and then. After the thirty are over we'll build a beautiful home in the country and have a real rest. And then when the census man inquires my name and occupation I oan put down Mrs. E. J. Morgan, housewife."

"Subordination!" laughed the actor,
"Why, my aunt there was a prima donna with a reputation when I was playing oneline parts for 116 a week."
"I enjoy this feeling of subordination."
Mrs. Morgan went on, unperturbed, "except when women make eyes at him. You should have seen the way two women ogled him when we went to see Sothern
the other night. It was simply scandalous, and I nearly had a spasm. I said. You ceme home; this is no place for you."
"All nonsense," said Morgan. "Aunty is only having a little fun at my expense."

California, where she is now rounding ta wonderfully successful season in interviewer in San Francisco the for Gay:

Will be "The Winter's Tale." in which impossible.

Lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The roles is not a new one, since all the actresses of importance for a hundred years with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" wall force him to continue playing current of the offer quite impossible.

Lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current of the offer quite impossible.

Lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Pit" will force him to continue playing current season, but when "The Pit" wants lackage is anxious to become a star with a repertoire. His popularity in "The Perdita. The scheme of doubling these roles is not a new one, since all the actresses of importance for a hundred years who have appeared in this delightful comedy have carried out this plan. It is doubtful that Shakespeare intended this, but the interest in the play is immensely enhanced by having one actress perform both roles. Who it was who introduced this novelty is not known, but once tried it has become a stage tradition. "Twelfth Night" has proved so great a favorite with Miss Allen as Vola that the comedy will be presented for a few performances in each of the larger cities where she appars.

pars.

Henry Jewett has been engaged as her leading man. He will impersonate Leontes, and when "Twelfth Night" is put forward he will be seen as Malvollo. During his career on the stage, Mr. Jewett has had considerable experience in Shakespearean plays. In 1882, when residing in New Zealand, he appeared in Louise Fomeroy's company in "The Winter's Tale, appearing as Camillo. When Miss Pomeroy presented "Twelfth Night" Mr. Jewett was the Duke Orsino. Coming to America, Mr. Jewett ioned Julia Marlowe's company, and when "Twelfth Night" was presented he appeared as Malvollo.

Grace George will summer at Allenhurst. N. J., where she has a delightful cottage and a well-equipped stable, that will enable her to gratify her passion for horse-back riding. It is possible that this de-lightful actress will take part in an out-door performance of one of Shakespeare's comedies in August. Early in September she will join the all-star cast of "The Two Orphans." She and Clara Morris formed a great friendship during the run of the star cast of "The Two Orphans" in the East.

Wilton Lackage has gone to his Long Island cottage for the summer with his wife and little son. Mr. Lackaye is a wite and little son. Mr. Lackaye is a close student and a speaker. He is the first actor to receive an offer from a political organization to stump the country in the interest of a presidential candidate.

Viola Allen's production for next season. His long tour already booked with "The the summer. He will then take a tour

Francis Wilson once remarked that he made his greatest hits just at moments when the audience least expected it. His famous line in "Erminie," "A man ought to know what he says," provokes laughter because of its constant repetition when the audience feels that the actor has done with it entirely.

Several stars have been trying recently to describe their sensation on a metropolitan "first night."

"It is like being run over by a lecomotive," said Maxine Elliott,

"It is like being torn limb from limb," Virginia Harned says.

"I never eat anything but soup that day," says Wilton Lackaye sententiously.

"It's no use."

James K. Hackett has bought the framatic right to William A. Farque-

Joseph Hart and Carrie de Mar will di vide their time this summer between West Baden and the Berkshire hills. They open next season in "Foxy Grandpa" August I. playing a short fall season before pre-senting a new musical comedy in New York entitled "The Country Club."

Al Leach, who will make his appearance

brough the vaudeville circuits of the West in a oue-act play, "The Little Fragedy of Tienstin," and will make his irst appearance as a full-fledged star early summer at Manhattan Beach when they close the two weeks' run of "Wang" a that place.

A GARTOONIST'S

STUDY OF MR KIRALFY.

successful with his plays, has for the last bo will make her reappearance as a star i New York this fall.

up her projected trip to South America, a where an unforeseen revolution might where an unforeseen revolution might lead to a remainte and little to be desired by the Jersey Lily, has a French piece, which the believes will be more popular than "Mrs. Deering's Divorce." It is "Varennes," in which Sarah Bernhardt found favor in Paris, and from that city comes the news that in comedy, tragedy and quick action through six acts it is particularly fitted for anciences is America. "Varennes" is the work of Henri Lavedan and G. Lenetre and deals with the court of Louis XVI.

William A. Brady professes great faith a a new play he has secured from the Reverend John Snyder of Wellesley Hills, He called it "Cape Cod Folk." and Brady believes that he has discovered another "Way Down East," which is said to have earned over half a million dollars in Mrs. E. I. Fernandez has announced the engagement of her daughter, Bijou Fer-nandez, to William Abingdon of London.

July 2, and on arrival here will proceed to Syracuse, her old home, where she will remain until the middle of August. She will be the star of "The Schoolgirt," which opens at Daly's Theater, New York, Sep-in the part played by H. B. Irving in Lon-don. Julie Opp (Mrs. Faversham) will play the leading comedy role.

Edward Harrigan is writing a play about his early experience on the stage, and he plans to "star" in it.

Daniel Frohman evidently liked his dip into the musical field with Kubelik and Gabrilowitsch, as cubled reports state that he has secured roung Franz von Vecsey, the little Hungarian violinist, for an extended tour of America, beginning in January. he has secured young Franz von Vecsey, the little Hungarian violinist, for an extended tour of America, beginning in January.

De Wolf Hopper and Nellie Bergen will the interval musical comedy enters upon its fifth successful week. Genevieve Pay. Comedian Don. Clifford Leigh, Charlie Bowers and the others continue in their original parts. All are well cast and all perform with the zest of a first production.

Olga Nethersole will come to America next season to be managed by Nelson Roberts.

Dorothy Russell, daughter of Lillian Russell, recently made her professional debut at Proctor's Newark Theater, Kyrie Bellew is to take "Raffles" to the Pacific Coast this fall. It will be his first appearance in California in seven years. Hilda Spong has been secured by Charles Frohman as leading woman for Henry Miller in a new play by Henry Arthur Jones.

an Purchase Spectacle" has contributed ty was first introduced Bolossy Kiralfy has received hundreds of letters, all query-of slippers, pajnmas, jacket and clown's cap, the whole being known as a punchinelle suit. The fabric composing it is of foreign manufacture. Each garment is thoroughly saturated with a liquid made from a chemical powder invented by Professor Giuseppe Bulzano of the Royal Italian Academy of Science, in Italy.

This powder, in its liquid form, has the effect of absorbing light, which is brilliantly emitted when the substance impregnated with it is exposed to artificial light. The costumes thus saturated are kept in a darkened room until ready for use.

The same written for the stage.

When easiing about for someone to play the eagle Manager Jannopoule considered several well-known actors, but these who still be requirement in one way seemed to be lacking in another, and a couple of days before the place were into rehearsal no one had been engaged.

Hayes has written for the stage.

When easiing about for someone to play the eagle Manager Jannopoule considered several well-known actors, but these who still be requirement in one way seemed to be lacking in another, and a couple of days before the place were into rehearsal no one had been engaged.

Hayes has written for someone to play the eagle Manager Jannopoule considered several well-known actors, but these who as the requirement in one way seemed to be lacking in another, and a couple of days before the place were into rehearsal no one had been engaged.

Hayes has written for someone to play the eagle Manager Jannopoule on sidered several well-known actors, but these who seemed to meet your play the eagle Manager Jannopoule on sidered several well-known actors, but these who had been actors, but these who had been actors, but these were in the requirement in one way seemed to be lacking in another, and a couple of the requirement in one way seemed to be actors, but the several well-known actors, but the several well-known actors, but these

When the girls don the suits at night a powerful calcium light is turned upon them for ten minutes. The stage is then darkened and the girls appear. At no time can the faces of the dancers be seen, their suits only heing saturated with the light-absorbing liquid. weston Bird, planist, and C. V. Boss, accompanist. The audience recalled Miss Baldwin three times after a Brahms number. She then sams Neven's Rose song which was composed for her. Among those in the audience were Lady Bective, Lady Goldsmith, Mrs. Ronalds, Mme. Guy Hardelat, Alberto Randegger, David Bispham, John Drew, Sir John Miley, Mark Hambourg and Mrs. Wilhelm Ganz.

That charming Southern beauty, "A Girl From Dixle" is still with us at the Century. To-night the merry musical

FOREST PARK HIGHLANDS

MISS MARTHA BAROSCH.

Who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barosch of No. 2009A

Fairfax avenue, and who will appear in one of Henry Savage's productions to begin its regular mason. The summer run of "Quincy Adams Sawyer" came to an end last night. "Out of the Fold," a stirring play by Langdon McCornick, will be presented this work. The auditorium is cooled by electric fans and a new ventilating system origi-

The American Eagle, as seen at Delmai Garden, is a wise hird, who performs many grotesque notics;

The Eagle is played by Master Charles Humfeld, a St. Louis lad, who has already made quite a reputation as a dancer. His engagement to play the part at Delmar was rather unexpected and was looked upon by Mr. Hayes, the librettist, as a ster has taken part in every piece Mr.

Adele Baldwin, the American contralto, has been very favorably received in Lonstein Hall. Her assistants were Clarence

next season

nated at this theater.

he Deimar Garden "Louisiana" rth of July a special day in the le Sam. Folumbin. Miss likke critican Eagle are all prominent in ow scheme of Illumination is anno memory and the state of the second

To-day's matinee begins the sixth the run of Kiralfy's "Louisiana Purchase Spe-lacie." The opening performance will be sig-nalized by a slight change in the company begin to-day, the initial attraction being a re-cival of Langion Met'renick's "Out of the Fold." The plot is written about the famous Moody and Sankey hymn. "Ninety and "line." which in itself outlines a most dramatic story. salvin Bidweit will be seen in the leading re-A careful scene production is promised Me-Cornick will be remembered as the author of Toll Gate Inn.

Rickel and Watson, German comedians t West End Heights, Mardo will pe ome eccentric juggling feats that are said to be heard in a funny talk. Castellar and Hall will appear in a comely sketch. Artiur light, a singing comedian, will be heard in a new and bright hudger of song. Two performances are given fally, in the afternion at 2 and in the evening at $23.

Rice and Crawford have converted Suburban week Among the performers this week are Colby and Way. Oille Young and Brother, ath-letes and expert hop rollers. Hardin langdes and the Walsey Aerobats. There are a great number of supplemental shows in the garden.

Standard. The featured extravaganga is called "Down the Pike." It will introduce the entire company, including Sam Rice, John Perry, Willlam Spencer and Shepp Camp, comedians well known in the burlengue line. Parti Carney, lable Ferry, Clara Hilldale, Stella rie Vers and lda La Pesri are also in the cast. Special vaudeville performers are Harris and Walters, the Esterbrocks, musicians, Frank Reilly, Irish jester, and Rice and Camp.

Eckert, Annie Mulkahy and Frances Dennis, Oak Leaf Lodge received applications, initiated candidates and installed the following of ficties at the last meeting. Protector, Paul Claus; secretary, Henry Horstmeyer, treasurer, Wilhelmina Evers; past protector, Minna Hunning, It was decided to meet necestre on the first and third Fridays of each month at the southeast corper of Twenty-second and Madison streets.

Arlington Circle's new officers were publicly issuabled at the Louisiana last Friday might, the grand officers of ficialting.

Imperial Circle has a contract the following of the control of the control dore Faller as alternates. The rank of Esquire will be conferred at the next convention.

Pacific Lodge hast Wednesday elected the following as representatives to the Grand Lodge: C. J. Kostuba, H. Webster, H. S. Tuttle, D. P. Andrus, J. W. Campbell; alternates, W. A. Gray, S. C. Rogers, A. A. Elcks, L. L. Crisp, W. C. Seyfriedt.

Legion of Honor.

Lafayette Council at its meeting last Monday avening received one application. Gwing to the fact that the next regular meeting falls on the Fourth of July 18 these been decided but to meeting and the freedom will be a special race between recorders and chancellers of the various councils. Cummings of St. Louis Council is favorite in the betting.

Busin Vima Council will give its second complimentary outing to its meeting in the friends on next Sunday at Ramons Park. The Committee on Arrangements has prepaired an excellent programme. The members of Bienes Vista and their friends had an enjoyable time last Sunday at Creve Cour Lake. Some beautiful prizes were distributed among the women connectants.

Alpha Council at its meeting last Tuesday evening received two applications, ejected two to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to membership and builtated one candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to the council of the candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to the council of the candidate. After the bosiness gestion the members attend to the council of the candid at Michigan and Roberts avenues.

Inited States Camp meets at Dedler Hall, Twentieth and Dodler street, every Tursday of the Court Tursdays at Severth street and Anna venues.

Freather Tursdays at Severth street and Anna venues.

Kulghts of the Macenbeen.

Another tent was added to the list of city tents, Great Commander Anderson, assisted by Deputy Great Commander McMaster and Sir Deputy Great Commander McMaster and Sir McGoles, attractive, with forty form rank instituted Garfield Tent at Anderson and France and Patalogus Interest, with forty form rank instituted Garfield Tent at Anderson Hall, defence and Patalogus Interest, with forty form rank instituted Garfield Tent at Anderson Hall, defence and Patalogus Interest, with forty form rank instituted Garfield Tent at Anderson Tent held its review had all of its five to the court of the

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR THEIR CATEBOOK SHOWN SECRET ORDERS.

Handle problem for the desirated state of the control of the contro

DE LACY'S FRENCH SHAMPOO leaves the scalp in a clean, healthy condition, and the hair soft, smooth and glossy. It should be used in connection with the hair tonic-50c package.